1. An ammunition factory, which had been in operation during World War II, was located in the woods between the roads from Policka to Jimramov and Horni Jedlova, about 2 kilometers south of Policka (O 50/N 15). The factory area was placed off limits. No sentries were posted. Soldiers working at the factory were billeted in the factory buildings.
2. A railroad line operated by soldiers connected the factory and the Policka railroad station and transported the labor force.
3. The factory worked in three shifts. Civilian employees were carefully screened prior to employment. Only Communists were admitted.

25X1A

 Comment: A large ammunition factory was in Policka before World War II.
